

Admissions

Entry Requirements

Students from outside the EU are required by the Dutch government to transfer more money than what we as college charge you. The total amount they require you to transfer is as follows:

- + You are a committed Christian and can give testimony to your Christian faith and life.
- + You have been actively involved in a local church for at least one year.
- + Although there may be exceptions, we normally expect that your church supports your decision to go and study at Cornerstone.
- + You can accept Cornerstone's statement of faith.
- + You have decided to go into cross cultural mission work, or are seriously considering this.
- + You have the qualifications necessary to enter into Higher Education studies or you can give evidence that your life experiences have prepared you to cope with the intensive Cornerstone training programme.
- + You are at least 20 years old.
- + You can provide a police clearance certificate.

Level of English

- + Native English speakers & those educated in English. If you are a native English speaker or if you can show that your school education has been through the medium of the English language, there are no additional requirements.
- + Dutch nationals If you are Dutch you will be able to demonstrate your level of English during your interview at Cornerstone. During your visit you will also be required to sit an English test. Depending on the result, we will let you know whether you need further English study before coming.
- + All other nationalities. If you do not fall into the two categories described above, Dutch government regulations require that you send us a copy of an official certificate which shows that your English is at the IELTS level 6.0 or equivalent (see table below)*.

If you are unsure about any of the requirements, please contact us so that we can explain them to you. (*Some end of school exams are accepted as well. Contact us for details.)

- + WE send you a confirmation of the arrival of your fees and a proof of admission as a student at Cornerstone

Visa application non-EU nationals

Visa applications for non EU nationals must always be initiated by Cornerstone. Please do not start any procedures of your own. The Dutch government regulations lead to the following requirements for the visa application:

- + An international birth certificate.
- + If applicable, a legalised copy of your marriage certificate.

We believe that mission is rooted in the Bible, therefore at Cornerstone the study of the Bible and Christian Theology form the foundation of our curriculum.

- + You are expected to transfer 14,640 EUR to us before a visa is granted (this value is for 2024-2025 and is changed annually)
- + (see finance section for more detailed information)
- + A signed declaration that you agree that Cornerstone will:
 - register you with the local authorities and will deregister you as soon as you have completed or stopped your training at Cornerstone.
 - inform the immigration department of your study progress.

Please note: your visa is a student visa. If you are more than 50% behind or have stopped studying, we will inform the immigration department and your visa will be cancelled.

Once you are accepted as a student, we will send you all the information with an updated list of all the documents you need to send us.

Visa costs

We do not charge you for the administrative work that is done by us on your behalf, but we will charge you for the cost of the visa itself. You also pay the yearly renewal fee. If you lose your resident permit, you will also be charged. Visa costs change every year. Check our finance and additional cost information sheets.
